Dear valued friends and customers,

Have you heard the news? The Bank of Fincastle and First National Corporation, the bank holding company of First Bank, announced the signing of a merger agreement.

I am sure you have questions about how this change will affect you, as a customer of The Bank of Fincastle. We are committed to providing transparent communications with our customers as we work through the merger details.

For now, it is business as usual at The Bank of Fincastle.

You will continue to see the same faces you know as your local personal bankers at The Bank of Fincastle and that will not change. We do not intend to close any branches with this transaction, and we will continue to operate in the best interest of our customers and community. At this time, your accounts will remain the same as they are now and there is no action required on your part.

If you have questions as we progress through the transition, feel free to ask. Our branch staff and management welcomes the opportunity to speak with you as we move forward together.

Like The Bank of Fincastle, First Bank understands the communities they serve in Virginia and has been committed to small and mid-sized communities for over 100 years. And, like us, the people of First Bank are committed to making our communities better and serving our customers as trusted advisors.

Thank you for being a valued, loyal customer of The Bank of Fincastle. We will continue to be your trusted local community bank.

Sincerely,

Scott Steele
